Warning: 18 U.S.C. 1001 provides among other things, that whoever knowingly and willfully makes or uses a document or writing containing any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement or entry, in any matter within the jurisdiction of any department or agency of the United States, shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both.

Instructions: If one or more members of a family elect not to contend that they have eligible immigration status, the family may be considered for assistance despite the fact that no declaration or documentation of eligible immigration status is submitted by one or more members of the family. The family, however, must identify to the BHA, the family member(s) who will elect not to contend that he or she has eligible immigration status. Type or print the names of the family members who elect not to contend that he or she has eligible immigration status below. The Head of Household or Spouse must sign and date the form in the space provided.
