Resident Opportunity & Self-Sufficiency (ROSS) Program Newsletter January, 2021

Thank you for subscribing to the Resident Opportunity & Self-Sufficiency (ROSS) Program newsletter! The ROSS Program is designed to assist public housing residents in making progress towards economic self-sufficiency through workshops and training events on financial literacy, career development, scholarship applications, and computer literacy, among other topics. We will send out newsletters frequently with upcoming opportunities for residents, so stay tuned!

February Virtual Career Fair

Join BHA for its first virtual career fair! Speak with well-known employers like Amazon and the U.S. Postal Service to learn how to apply for open positions. The virtual fair will allow employers to discuss hiring opportunities and Q&A for prospective applicants.
